

Belgrave Square

Lorsque William Weems, un obscur usurier, est assassiné du côté de Clerkenwell, une discrète jubilation se répand parmi ses clients qui n'hésitent pas, à sa façon, à étrangler sans pitié. Aussi, quand l'inspecteur Pitt trouve dans son bureau une liste avec les noms de la plupart des gentlemen londoniens, il prend conscience de l'ampleur de sa tâche. William Weems était un vulgaire maître chanteur. Mais Thomas a un atout en la personne de Charlotte, son épouse, issue de la meilleure société londonienne. Et que ce soit au cours de bals chatoyants ou de five o'clock tea, elle observe ce monde de passion, de pouvoir et de cupidité que la police n'est pas autorisée à voir...
