

HIDDEN PASSIONS

My Life Is Great. Why Do I Feel So Awful? By most people's standards, you are a successful woman. You have a loving family, a terrific job, and financial comfort. Yet something seems to be missing. Something you don't want to admit to yourself. Something you won't take the time to search for. Dr. Steve Pieczenik, a Board Certified psychiatrist, spent twenty years in private practice, treating hundreds of women patients. In this book he shares their poignant, fascinating stories, vividly describing how each uncovered what was missing from her life. He describes their negative behavior (such as workaholicism, alcoholism) and the early warning signs that something is wrong (such as constant tiredness, hard to explain anxiety). But this is a great solution book as well, offering strategies for assessing your life and improving it. Hidden Passions focuses on asking hard questions... and answering them.
