

When Meshad left home to go off to theology school, he did not expect his long-time girlfriend to follow him. In an effort to dissuade her, he violently forced himself on her. After the demonic attack, his sexual deviance began to escalate and for the next several months, his appetite for depraved physical encounters did not discern between men and women. The theologian took pleasure in defiling any warm body in his grasp. Meshad's affiliation with a secret organization afforded him power and luxuries known only to a select few. But, when he betrays the organization, his world of milk and honey dissipate almost instantaneously. He must betray the only person who ever loved him to get it all back. He learns a hard lesson in prison and soon finds that once gone, some things can never be recovered. Take a trip into the dark world of a young man who purports to be a man of God, but does all the work of the devil.
